With Speaker:
Fred Kosin

Fred and Jenny Kosin were raised in Christian homes and in assembly fellowship. They met at Emmaus Bible College and were married in 1961. After being commended to the Lord's work in 1966 they shared in the establishment of Hiawassa Bible Chapel in Orlando, Florida along with Svend and Rhoda Christensen. From there they went to South Carolina where they were exercised to strengthen the assembly in Florence. While there they also ministered at various camps, retreats and conferences across the US and Canada.

In the early 1980's Fred and Jenny began a ministry of encouraging missionaries at conferences that took them to Europe, Central Africa, South Africa, Singapore and other mission fields- a ministry lasting over 30 years. These travels also included giving practical help such as carpentry, plumbing, electrical and, of course, counselling to individual missionaries. Fred has written at least two books; "Letters That Missionaries Never Write" and "Blessings All Mine With 10,000 Besides" the latter being a daily devotional book.

In more recent years they have concentrated their ministry more in the US and Canada. The Lord has blessed them with three sons and nine grandchildren, all of whom are believers.

Fred and Jenny are grateful to the Lord for the fruit of their labours and give Him all the glory.
