SPEAKER: CHUCK GIANOTTI

Chuck Gianotti, Th.M. Dallas Theological Seminary, has held elder and leadership roles in a variety of church and Christian organization contexts since becoming a Christian in 1972. He has been serving the Lord full time since 1983 in both the US and Canada, serving in various capacities, including as an elder for over 28 years, most recently with Crossroads Bible Fellowship in Rochester, New York, which he helped plant in 1995. Chuck has taught at Kawartha Lakes Bible College (Canada) and is the founder and former editor of Elders' Shop Notes (an international bi-monthly ministry letter to elders). He has written a number of books on various Biblical & Christian living subjects, plus numerous pamphlets and blogs. Chuck is vitally interested in discipling men, and he speaks at camps, conferences, and other churches on a regular basis. He has been married to Mary for over 40 years, and together they have two adult children and two grandchildren.
