

Questions for Wednesday night Bible Study

1. What is the subject matter of chapters 9 – 11?
2. Why is it necessary for Paul to take up this subject?
3. Verse 2 – For what is Paul pained?
4. Which member of the Godhead is referred to in 9:5b?
5. What is the point of Romans 9:6-13?
6. Verse 6 – In what sense could some of the Jews argue that “the word of God has taken no effect”?
7. Explain the language “they are not all Israel that are of Israel” (verse 6).
8. Verse 13 – How are we to understand the words “loved” and “hated”?
9. Is predestination of individual souls throughout eternity implied anywhere in 9:11-28? How then are the verses to be explained?
10. Verse 18 – Who and how does God harden a man?
11. Who would say unto Paul the thought expressed in verse 19?
12. Explain “vessels of wrath” and “fitted for destruction” in v. 22. Doesn’t this verse affirm the Calvinistic doctrine that certain people are predestined to Hell? Who are the vessels of mercy?
13. Look up the Old Testament quotes and their context mentioned in verses 25-29? What point is Paul trying to make in quoting these passages?

Questions for Wednesday night Bible Study

1. What is the subject matter of chapters 9 – 11?
2. Why is it necessary for Paul to take up this subject?
3. Verse 2 – For what is Paul pained?
4. Which member of the Godhead is referred to in 9:5b?
5. What is the point of Romans 9:6-13?
6. Verse 6 – In what sense could some of the Jews argue that “the word of God has taken no effect”?
7. Explain the language “they are not all Israel that are of Israel” (verse 6).
8. Verse 13 – How are we to understand the words “loved” and “hated”?
9. Is predestination of individual souls throughout eternity implied anywhere in 9:11-28? How then are the verses to be explained?
10. Verse 18 – Who and how does God harden a man?
11. Who would say unto Paul the thought expressed in verse 19?
12. Explain “vessels of wrath” and “fitted for destruction” in v. 22. Doesn’t this verse affirm the Calvinistic doctrine that certain people are predestined to Hell? Who are the vessels of mercy?
13. Look up the Old Testament quotes and their context mentioned in verses 25-29? What point is Paul trying to make in quoting these passages?